

Get ready to act!

Disaster Preparedness Drill for Foreign Residents

Have Fun Learning and Preparing for Earthquakes and Fires

- Free of charge
- There will be volunteer interpreters
- Participants will all receive presents

The official character of Tokyo Bousai "Bosai the Rhino"

Have a wide range of experiences in both English and plain (simplified) Japanese.

Experience how terrifying disasters can be!

- VR disaster simulator
Experience earthquakes and fires in simulators
- Earthquake simulator
See what it feels like when your house shakes in an earthquake
- Heavy rain simulator
Experience truly heavy rains

Prepare for disasters!

- Fire extinguisher training
Try your hand at putting out a fire
- Smoke experience
See what it's like to walk through smoke
- Evacuation center experience
Experience life in an evacuation center

Learn together!

- Crafting workshops
Make crafts that can help in the event of an earthquake or a fire
- Communication using a translation app
Practice using a device to translate into and from other languages

There will be many other training opportunities as well

January 28, 2020 (Tuesday)

10:00 a.m. to 12:40 p.m. (planned)
(Registration will begin at 9:20 a.m.)

Musashino Forest Sport Plaza

(290-11 Nishimachi, Cho-fu City, Tokyo)
■ Five-minute walk from the Keio Line Tobitakyu Station

Soup kitchen
Warm food will be served

- Eligible Participants
- Application/Inquiries

300 (International residents, employees and students in Tokyo)
Office of the Disaster Preparedness Drill for Foreign Residents (Ad Interface Co., Ltd.)
[Website] <https://www.bousaikunren.com>
[Email address] 2019info@bousaikunren.com
[Telephone] 03-5811-1929 (9:00~18:00)

- Application Deadline

January 15, 2020 (Wednesday) *The drill may receive media coverage.