

A Famous Garden from the End of Edo

Sui-kei-en in Shibamata Taishakuten 27

7-10-3 Shibamata, Katsushika-ku ☎03-3657-2886

Tokyo Metropolitan Government-designated Place of Scenic Beauty "Daikyo-Ji Sui-kei-en"
Tokyo-Metropolitan-Selected Historical Buildings "Shibamata Taishakuten Daikyo-Ji Daikyakuden"

The name Sui-kei-en comes from the quiet and tranquil atmosphere of the waterfall in the garden. Major renovations began in 1965 by Rakuzan Nagai, a famous landscape gardener in the Kanto region, and were completed in 1968. In 1984, the corridor was built around the garden, allowing worshippers to appreciate the garden from various perspectives. The main garden was originally designed by Rakuzan Nagai as a garden best enjoyed while sitting in the Main Guest Room (privileged guests only) and was completed along with the park in 1929. In March 2023, the Main Guest Room was additionally designated as a place of scenic beauty, and the entire garden was designated as Tokyo's scenic spot.

Hama Palace where sea breeze blows
as a reminder of the Edo period

Hama-rikyu Gardens ①

1-1 Hamarikyuteien, Chuo-ku ☎03-3541-0200

National-designated Special Place of Scenic Beauty and Special Historic Site
"Former Hama-rikyu Teien Gardens"

This is the family garden of Tokugawa Shogun which functioned as an outer fort for Edo castle that retains a tidal pond of seawater drawn from the bay called Shioiri-no-ike and 2 duck hunting grounds. In 1654, the fourth shogun Ietsuna's younger brother Matsudaira Tsunashige reclaimed land from the sea and built his detached residence called "Hama-goten". Thereafter, several improvements to the garden were carried out by the shoguns, then it was finally completed almost as we see it now. After the Meiji Restoration, the garden became a detached palace of the Imperial Family, changing its name to Hama-rikyu. The Imperial Family donated the garden to the City of Tokyo in November 1945, and the garden opened to the public in April, 1946 as Hama-rikyu Gardens. Later, the garden designated as a Special Place of Scenic Beauty and Special Historic Site of the country.

Place that is famous for its relation with Mito Komon

Koishikawa Korakuen Gardens ③

1-6-6 Koraku, Bunkyo-ku ☎03-3811-3015

National-designated Special Historic Site and Special Place of Scenic Beauty "Koishikawa Korakuen Gardens"

The construction of the garden started in 1629 in the early Edo era by the feudal lord Tokugawa Yorifusa, the lord of Mito branch, one of "the Three Houses of the Tokugawa" and completed in the hands of his son, the second domain lord, Tokugawa Mitsukuni (Mito Komon). Mitsukuni completed the garden's construction with the help of the Chinese scholar Zhu Shunsi, incorporating elements of the Chinese landscape like "Full Moon Bridge" and "Saiko-no-tsutsumi" and others. Zhu Shunsi also named the garden, showing the rich influence of Chinese culture. This garden is a stroll garden with artificial hills and a large pond in the center, and it is a representative garden of the Edo-era, which has been chosen as a National-designated Special Historic Site and Special Place of Scenic Beauty under the Law for the Protection of Cultural Properties.

An urban oasis in 1 minute walk from JR Hamamatsucho Station

Kyu-Shiba-rikyu Gardens ②

1-4-1 Kaigan, Minato-ku ☎03-3434-4029

National-designated Place of Scenic Beauty "Garden of Former Shibarikyū"

Kyu-Shiba-rikyu is one of the oldest Edo-era feudal lord's gardens. It is a typical Japanese garden with a pond surrounded by a path featuring superb ground and stonework. Kyu-Shiba-rikyu is filled with artificial hills that provide excellent views of the environment. The highest hill, Oyama, provides a full panoramic view.

At the end of the Edo period, the garden came into the possession of the Kishu Tokugawa clan. However, the garden was severely damaged in the Great Kanto Earthquake. The following year, 1924, in January, the garden was bestowed upon Tokyo City to commemorate the marriage of Emperor Showa and was opened to the public in April of the same year as the Kyu-Shiba-rikyu Gardens.

A graceful daimyo garden filled with refined mind of Waka poetry

Rikugien Gardens ④

6-16-3 Hon-komagome, Bunkyo-ku ☎03-3941-2222

National-designated Special Place of Scenic Beauty "Rikugien Gardens"

Rikugien is a kaiyu-style (strolling) daimyo garden with human-made hills and a pond with a basic idea based on the love of waka poetry. It was constructed in 1702 by the lord of Kawagoe domain, Yanagisawa Yoshiyasu who was deeply trusted by the 5th shogun, Tokugawa Tsunayoshi. In this fine and tranquil Japanese garden, we can enjoy a wide range of beautiful views while strolling along the pond. This place is a typical and representative daimyo garden of the Edo era.

A western-style building and lawn garden fulfilled with the romance of the Meiji era

Kyu-Iwasaki-tei Gardens 5

1-3-45 Ikenohata, Taito-ku ☎03-3823-8340

National-designated Important Cultural Property (building)
"The Former Residence of the Iwasaki Family"

Kyu-Iwasaki-tei Gardens was built in 1896 as the main residence of Iwasaki Hisaya, the third president of Mitsubishi and the eldest son of Iwasaki Yataro, the founder of the Group. The original total area was approx. 2.4 times larger than today.

Three buildings, namely the Western-style residence, the billiard room, and the Japanese residence hall, remain to this day. The Western-style residence and the billiard room were designed by a famous British architect, Josiah Conder.

The site has been designated as a National Important Cultural Property, as it preserves a typical form of residence in the Meiji period.

Circle style garden decorated with famous stones collected from all over Japan

Kiyosumi Gardens 7

3-3-9 Kiyosumi, Koto-ku ☎03-3641-5892

Tokyo Metropolitan Government-designated Place of Scenic Beauty "Kiyosumi Gardens"

According to an estimate, this place is regarded as the former site of a mansion of the legendary wealthy merchant, Kinokuniya Bunzaemon in the Edo era. During 1716 and 1735, it became the secondary residence of the domain lord, Kuze Yamatonokami. In 1878, Mitsubishi founder Iwasaki Yataro bought the dilapidated residence, and he planned a garden that would be a site for his employee's recreation and to invite dignitaries. The garden construction went on until it was completed as the most representative "kaiyu-style (circuit style) garden" in the Meiji era that include a large pond drawing water from Sumida river, manmade hills and dry landscape gardens in particular valuable stones collected from all over the country. The garden suffered extensive damage during the Great Kanto earthquake but was redeveloped in 1932 after being donated to Tokyo Prefecture and remains one of the finest examples of a Meiji era strolling garden.

The only surviving flower garden from the Edo period

Mukoijima-Hyakkaen Gardens 6

3-18-3 Higashi-Mukoijima, Sumida-ku ☎03-3611-8705

National-designated Place of Scenic Beauty and Historic Site "Mukoijima Hyakkaen Flower Gardens"

This flower garden was built in the early 19th century, when Edo's urban culture was at its peak. A wealthy antique dealer named Sahara kikuu, assisted by his friends with literary and artistic tastes and talents, took an initiative to open a flower garden for viewing pleasure of flower-bearing vegetation. According to a theory, the name "Hyakkaen" (hundred-flower garden) means Garden where a hundred of flowers bloom four seasons of the year". At the beginning, the garden was featured by 360 plum trees, but later, well known plants quoted in Chinese and Japanese classics like "Shikyo" (the China's oldest collection of poems) and "Manyo-shu" (the existing oldest collection of Waka poems in Japan) were collected until the garden provided flowers throughout the seasons. Hyakkaen was built with a commoner's touch. Constructed by literary persons, it strongly reflected their tastes with a beauty that differs from that of feudal lords' gardens such as Koishikawa Korakuen and Rikugien.

Unique garden of the Taisho-period with a harmonized mixture of Japanese and western tastes

Kyu-Furukawa Gardens 8

1-27-39 Nishigahara, Kita-ku ☎03-3910-0394

National-designated Place of Scenic Beauty "Former Gardens of the Furukawa Family"

Taking advantage of the terrain of the Musashino Plateau, a Western-style house was built on a small hill on the north side, while a Western-style garden lies on the slope, and a Japanese garden is on the low ground. The harmony of the Japanese and Western styles is the charm of the garden. The existent building and garden, built by Toranosuke Furukawa, the third head of the Furukawa Family, are of precious value, as they maintain their original forms of the early Taisho era. The Western-style house and garden were designed by the British architect Josiah Conder who worked on such projects as Rokumeikan and the western style mansion of the Kyu-Iwasaki-tei Gardens from the Meiji to the Taisho era. A famous Kyoto gardener named Jihei Ogawa developed the Japanese garden.

The Garden Legacy of the Hosokawa Clan

Bunkyo City Higo-Hosokawa Garden 15

1-1-22 Mejirodai, Bunkyo-ku ☎03-3941-2010

At the final years of the Edo era, this place has been used as a suburban residence of Hosokawa Etchu no Kami, the feudal lord of Higo Kumamoto 540,000 koku. Utilizing the height difference of the natural plateau, the circuit-style garden around the pond has sloping forests and narrow streams with spring water so that you can see the varied landscape. In spring, after the cherry blossoms blooming, the fresh green leaves adorn the plateau. In Jun, the "Higo Hanashoubu (Higo Iris)" that is one of the Higo Rokka (six kinds of flowers) is beautiful in full bloom. Also, the Western and Japanese-style rooms in the building "Shouseikaku", which retains the appearance of the Taisho era, can be used as meeting rooms (admission fee/advance reservation required). You can see a panoramic garden view from the observatory room on the second floor.

- Admission Fees Free of charge

Feel the flow of quiet and peaceful time
Another world of springs and water

Toshima City Mejiro Garden ¹⁹

3-20-18 Mejiro, Toshima-ku ☎03-5996-4810

This is a "pond-spring-excursion-style garden" – a stroll garden with a large pond at its center, designed by leading Japanese landscape architect Kunie Ito and completed in 1990. The garden embodies the traditional Japanese sense of natural beauty. The artificial hills surrounding the pond, the waterfalls, and the rise and fall of the land showcase a wealth of different environments, and allow full enjoyment of flowers and trees regardless of the seasons. In the Sekicho-an building, related to the Akai Tori children's magazine, you can enjoy tea ceremonies and a variety of performances.

Remains of the Shoin Garden
from the Early Showa period

Yamamoto-tei ²⁰

7-19-32 Shibamata, Katsushika-ku

☎03-3657-8577

Katsushika ward registered Tangible Cultural Property "Yamamoto-Tei Gardens", Tokyo Metropolitan Government-selected Historic Place "Katsushika-ku Yamamoto-Tei"

With an area of approximately 892 square meters, is a typical Shoin garden that features a path around a pond and drops a waterfall from the lush shrubbery and artificial hill. The garden preserves the style that was popular at the beginning of the Showa period, which is an extraordinary case these days. The waterfall is located in the farthest place inside the pond, giving the pond an impression of being larger and producing a sympathetic resonance. Also, as a technique to show the surface of the pond wider, coves have been placed on all sides.

■ Admission Fees Adults 100 yen (Free admission for junior high school students or younger children and disability certificate holders)

A Japanese Garden Highlighting Modern Art & Architecture

Roppongi Hills Mohri Garden 23

6-chome Roppongi, Minato-ku ☎03-6406-6000

"General Nogi's birthplace", designated as a historic place in 1919 (currently designated as Historic Place of Tokyo Prefecture)

"Remains of Mohri Kai-no-kami's Residence", designated as Historic Place by Tokyo Metropolitan Government in 1943

The Mohri Garden was built on the site where Mohri Family, who assumed the role of feudal lord for generations, had their mansion and garden during the Edo era. Traces of the original estate remain, and several pieces of modern art are placed throughout the garden. Together with the modern architecture of Roppongi Hills, the scenery is a special fusion of the traditional and modern. The killifish swimming in Mohri pond in the center of the park are descended from those born on the space shuttle in 1994. Spot-billed ducks come to the pond every spring. We hope you will feel a new history is beginning.
